MICE software for hotels and venues for free till summer - discounted price afterwards

With a special offer Eventmachine encourages hotels and venues to take the opportunity to automate their event sales now. Banquet sales and event teams get full, free access to Eventmachine's platform for online event planning and quoting to organize and automate old manual processes and make sales more efficient.

»With our First Aid Deal we'd like to offer all hotels and venues the chance to get their digital tools in place now - while they have time,« explains Florian Zelfel, CEO of Eventmachine. »So they can be better prepared and more efficient once life returns to normal.«

Hoteliers and venue providers interested can sign up online for the offer to April 30, 2020 using the coupon code »#PREPARENOW«.

About EVENTMACHINE

Eventmachine is the first automated event planning and quoting platform for hotels, venues and providers of meetings, seminars and events. Seamlessly embedded in the supplier's own website, it saves time, prevents errors and maximizes MICE revenue.
